Common Patterns

What 1,001 Use Cases Reveal About the State of Enterprise Gen AI

01

Conversational Customer Agents

Most Visible Entry Point Across Industries

Mercedes-Benz • GM OnStar • Volkswagen • LUXGEN •
Commerzbank • Mercari

AI-powered virtual assistants handle customer queries, reduce wait times, and lower human agent workloads — the leading deployment pattern in Automotive, Financial Services, and Retail.

02

Employee Productivity Agents

Broadest Category by Deployment Volume

Uber • Rivian • Geotab • Oxa • Toyota • Routematic

Gemini for Google Workspace summarizes documents, accelerates research, drafts content, reviews legal contracts, and filters data across departments from HR to engineering.

03

Creative & Scale Agents

Fastest-Growing Frontier — Text to Multimodal

Virgin Voyages • PODS / Tombras • Figma

Gen AI moves from text into multimodal creative production at enterprise scale: hyper-personalized video ads, real-time adaptive billboards, and brand-approved asset generation in seconds.

Strategic Takeaways

Where to Start and What to Expect from Enterprise Gen AI

01

Gen AI Is Production-Ready Across All Major Industries

The 10× growth from 101 to 1,001 use cases in 18 months — spanning 11 industry verticals and 6 agent types — proves that enterprise gen AI has moved well beyond proof-of-concept.

02

Customer & Employee Agents Are the Most Common Entry Points

Conversational assistants and workplace productivity tools dominate deployments. Organizations entering gen AI should prioritize these categories for fastest time-to-value.

03

Measurable ROI Is Achievable Within Months

Production deployments report 500% ROI (Mercari), 30% workload reduction (LUXGEN), and 10,000+ man-hours saved annually (Toyota). The data refutes the 'no ROI yet' objection.

04

Creative & Code Agents Are Emerging Fast

The latest update added 400 new entries including multimodal creative production (Virgin Voyages, PODS) and enterprise code assistance (Renault Ampere). These are the next wave.

05

Early Movers Gain Compounding Advantages

The pace of adoption is accelerating exponentially. Organizations that deploy now build data advantages, internal expertise, and organizational muscle memory that late entrants will struggle to replicate.
