Takeaways for Enterprise Leaders

Five actionable insights from the world's largest catalog of enterprise gen AI deployments.

1

Gen AI is production-ready across all major industries

1,001 use cases across 11 verticals — from automotive to telecommunications — confirm enterprise-grade maturity beyond proof-of-concept stage.

2

Customer and employee agents are the most common entry points

Conversational assistants and workplace productivity tools dominate deployment patterns — start here for lowest-risk, highest-frequency wins.

3

Measurable ROI is achievable in production

Verified outcomes: 500% ROI (Mercari), 30% workload reduction (LUXGEN), 10,000+ hours saved (Toyota), 6,000+ creative assets in hours (PODS). These are real results, not projections.

4

Creative and code agents are the fastest-growing frontier

From Virgin Voyages' hyper-personalized video to Renault's Gemini Code Assist — multimodal creative and developer productivity agents are emerging rapidly.

5

The pace is accelerating — early movers gain compounding advantages

400 new entries in the latest update alone. Enterprise gen AI deployment is still in its early exponential phase — organizations that start now build institutional capability that compounds.

Use the 11 × 6 taxonomy to identify your highest-impact gen AI opportunities today.
